MISSING PEACE: LOVE LIFE ME (PAPERBACK)

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Missing Peace-Love, Life, Me documents the author s journey from Australia to India and back again in search of herself. It s a highly personal story with real characters and a narration that interweaves passion, betrayal, humiliation, friendship, and love. It is bold, inspirational, and compelling. It describes reality and its emotional roller coaster. It s about a woman finding herself lost between two cultures and desperately seeking to belong. Will Nandita find what she is looking for? Through the pages of Missing Peace-Love, Life, Me readers will discover her journey to redemption, love, and trust. Come, let s take a walk together on this journey of mine with some amazing people I met along the way and the conversations I had with them; each taught me in their own special way about love, life, and me. Nandita Chakraborty was born in Kolkatta, India in 1975 to a small conservative family who has always been associated with the arts. Her father won many accolades in the field of Indian Cinema. His film was the first Indian film in a regional language to win the Silver Bear at the Berlin Film Festival in 1980. Her sense of creativity started at a young age. The whole house would be surrounded by Camera! Action! Glamour! Well-known artists would sometimes spark her creative mind at the dinner table or at her mother s dressing table. Along with her siblings, she was sent out to boarding school at the age of seven in the hills of Meghalaya, India. A few years later, the family settled in New Delhi, where she attended Sri Venketeswara University in New Delhi and she studied Political Science by day and Fashion...
