Excerpt from The Archaeological Journal, Vol. 38 These formidable Charges and many others were made to the Visitor by the Chapter against the Dean, and his interference is earnestly sought. On the other hand the Dean had something to say against the Chapter. He accuses them of wasting the common funds of the Church in senseless and useless quarrels, of granting leases and concessions of rights, privileges and immunities, under the common seal without consulting the Dean. And whereas each Residentiary ought to have a special Chaplain attendant upon him in the Church to wait upon him in the performance of the altar services, instead of this the Residentiaries take one of the Vicars Choral or the Chantry Chaplains to do this office. They also, according to the Dean, failed to present to Chantries in the Church which were vacant, and appropriated the revenues; other monies bequeathed for pious uses they had misapplied. They had appropriated the cloth bought out of the common fund of the Church for clothing for the poor to the use of themselves and their servants. They neglected to repair their houses and in many ways misconducted themselves. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
