Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Almost every human being, to achieve its called age of reason, in the meeting of social life with other men and/or even simply for having been launched in the world without request and/or without knowing the reason, nor the because, at a given moment of its existence (in some cases sooner, in other later) tends to make inquiries concerning the where I came? Where am I? Where am I going? That inexorably lead to pass: 1-By nausea. 2-By distresses. 3-By existential chaos. In other words, tends to pass by existential problems, where all or almost all their essential values are checkmated, and is likely to change and/or breaks, the swings in the direction of Nietzsche. This is, After the nausea and distress experienced, immersed in a state of chaos, had this as a consequence of these its insertions in social life; had this as a result of this direct confrontation with the different men and, at the same time, with a hostile world that it presents, and if so on itself, for these reasons, the large...
