Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from History of the Joint Anniversary Celebration at Monterey, Cal; Of the 110th Anniversary of American Independence and the 40th Anniversary of the Taking Possession of California and the Raising of the American Flag at Monterey by Commodore John D. Sloat: The Celebration Being Held on Monday, July 5, 1886 The old Custom House was selected as the proper point for the raising of ags and the accompanying exercises, and the Stars and Stripes were run up on the self-same pole which bore them on that memorable day for ty years ago. This ancient building is what might be called a piece of national crazy quilt work, .as two portions of it were erected under the Spanish and Mexican ags and afterward patched together by the Ameri cans. This historic building has been in charge of Captain Thomas G. Lambert and wife for twenty years and they deserve great credit for the handsome manner in which they cleaned and adorned it for Monterey s great day. For several days the red, white and blue and the red, white and green...
