This brief and concise handbook on Systematic Theology, will investigate the meaning of Theology as the study of God. Theology is a Science, just like any other scientific study. Systematic Theology is an organized study of God, His attributes, and revelation of Himself to man. Systematic refers to something being put into a system. Systematic theology is, therefore, the division of theology into systems that explain its various areas. For example, many books of the Bible give information about the angels. No one book gives all the information about the angels. Systematic theology takes all the information about angels from all the books of the Bible and organizes it into a system called angelology. That is what systematic theology is all about organizing the teachings of the Bible into categorical systems. The word theology comes from two Greek words that combined mean the study of God. Christian theology is simply an attempt to understand God as He is revealed in the Bible. No theology will ever fully explain God and His ways because God is infinitely and eternally higher than we are. Therefore, any attempt to describe Him will fall short (Romans 11: 33-36). However, God does want us to know Him insofar as we are able, and theology is the art and science of knowing what we can know and understand about God in an organized and understandable manner. Some people try to avoid theology because they believe it is divisive. Properly understood, though, theology is uniting. Proper, biblical theology is a good thing; it is the teaching of Gods Word (2 Timothy 3: 16-17). The study of theology, then, is nothing more than digging into Gods Word to discover what He has...
