Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Holidaze the third edition has been released! It can be purchased right now on and in a few days on Kindle and in a few weeks will be available in Europe. You could say this is a book about the life and times of Billy Czappa, growing up in the sleepy town of Culver City California. They begin when he was a child in the 50 s growing up with those kinds of parents that would over decorate the house for the holidays, then it goes through his high school and college years and stories about trying to find that special girl, building a boat, and living on it as a method of attracting her. Adventures on that boat on the high seas, well, summering on Catalina Island anyway. Spending one Christmas alone in a bay on that same island having lost a girlfriend, again. Then on to his, own parenting years, being a single father of a bouncing baby girl. The stories proceed to the present with that baby grown up and having a family, with 4 kids of her own involving the six of them moving into together at his art studio home with 3 bedrooms and one bath. Many later stories cover his years as an artist often involving lost love and nearly always losing the girl. His stories are either completely true, true but embellished or completely fictional. Although considering the many wacky relatives and friends he did actually have, one wonders why anything needed to be made up? His art book, Assembled in America, also on Amazon Kindle and also shows his art years and could be considered a photo sequel to this book. William s work...
