THE WALTZ OF SHADOWS: LA VALSE DES OMBRES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . (La poesie en francais et en anglais avec des illustrations en couleur par les poetes) Illustrated in full colour by the poets, this collection of English and French poetry is a first collaboration by published poets Benjamin Cusden from Great Britain and Faten Gharbi from France. A collaboration of poems that are presented here in their original form and are also translated into the other poet s national language. [Benjamin Cusden s poetry is naturally English (UK) and Faten Gharbi s poetry is naturally French (France)]. Life, love and death dance The Waltz of Shadows in this collection of poetry that haunts the edges of our lives and minds. It hides from the bright lights of day and exists in a world of forever moving shadows. Love in its many guises and disguises; loss and new hope; the end of innocence and the fragility of the human mind are all within the pages of this moving collection. The poets have been introspective, looking deeply within themselves and have excavated through layers of experiences, feelings, thoughts and beliefs. These poems have been written with their true feelings about emotions and experiences that have touched their lives and are intrinsically shared globally in different personal ways. With the shadows of the darkness of depression, for example, comes the balance of the fleeting glimmers of hope that can occasionally burn strongly. The poets are from very different backgrounds and have been brought up in separate cultures and yet they have found a shared set of emotions and feelings that they present here through their words. There are no shadows without light but sometimes it is hard to distinguish between the two as...
