Move your bed out into the open air if it is possible for you to do so. In 1758, during a rebellion of the native soldiers in India, one hundred and forty-six Englishmen were shut up overnight in a room that had but a single window. When morning came, only twenty-three of them remained alive. After the battle of Austerlitz, three hundred prisoners were crowded into a cavern. In a few hours two thirds of them were dead. Many other instances are on record of people who have perished when shut up in closets, vaults, or the holds of ships. Most persons have read of some of these instances, and practically every one takes care...
