Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Author Richard Jan does it again with the tenth novel in his exciting and dramatic series, DYING TO SUCCEED. This novel, CASUALTIES OF WORDS, continues the intriguing developments of John Van Laan, CEO of an international gem company. Like a dear friend, John emerges throughout these ten novels as a character about whom we really care. We empathize with his life, which is full of doubts, threats, loves, and adventures. We feel protective toward him as he attempts to sort through all the forces pulling him in one direction and then another. Over the course of these adventures, we have also come to know and care about his female companions, whom he loves and who are sensitive and supportive lovers. Yet, the author does not let us get too close to them, for inevitably and eventually they die. At the end of this tenth novel, we wonder about the future of Rachel, the intelligent, sensitive, beautiful cancer doctor, and we truly hope her relationship with John will survive. But we have faced the loss of love before. We will simply have to wait to see the outcome of this relationship in the next novel. Like his previous novels, with such captivating names as LIVING WITH DEATH, AFRAID OF HOPE, CHASING AFTER TIME, and the others in this DYING TO SUCCEED series, Richard Jan takes us on an exciting journey as John seeks to protect himself, his lover, and his country. All of Jan s novels deal with the struggles of life and death; probe the deeper meanings of spirituality, sexuality, desires, wants versus needs, and from whence do we find true value in life; and they raise existential questions about God, the...
