

ABC s of Christ: Back to Basics (Paperback)

By C R Tolson

Xulon Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Dedication to Nori Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it. It is time for us to learn about Christ and to teach our children about Him. What better way to do that than going back to the basic alphabet that we all learned in grade school. We should be able to describe Christ from A to Z. We are reminded by Christ to humble ourselves as little children so that we may see the kingdom of heaven. Why is that? It is because children recognize their sole dependence on their parents. Children depend on their parents comfort, love, and guidance. Parents help children to build trust, esteem, and morale. A child looks for his parent to hold their hand when crossing the street, and to console them when they are crying. They hunger and thirst for their parents. If we have the mindset of a child, then maybe we will have that same craving for Christ. God is our Father. We should look to Him...
