SELECTIVE PERCEPTION: MISDIRECTION

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I am your antithesis, the blasphemer who dares to defy your dark master. Embrace my blessing, my poisoned gift to you: for what you perceive as goodness is nothing more than a brief stint of pleasure before the suffering that is the Hell to come! Adrian Vantel, Chapter 5 June 5, 1968. Anti-Jewish nationalist Sirhan Sirhan guns down Robert F. Kennedy at a political rally event in California. Subdued, arrested, and tried in quick succession, it was a quick and uneventful trial that many now regard as the first spark of America's suffering in the tumultuous war that rages in the Middle East. Decades have since passed, greater catastrophes claiming many more lives with each decade, as Sirhan's five minutes of fame have been reduced to nothing but the workings of an unstable man now locked away in a San Diego prison, the assassin's story and motivations changing every time he's asked. The one urban legend to go unsolved? The mystery of a hypnotist, a woman in a Polka dot dress. December 1, 1998. Adrian Vantel is one of the world's premier hitman for hire. Ex-Green Beret, veteran of combat operations in Afghanistan, Vietnam, Korea, and a spy rumored to have even helped topple the Soviet Union, there isn't a job the bored mercenary isn't willing to take as long as the price is right. Right when he feels it's time to quit while he's ahead, he gets one last job unlike anything he's heard of before. A daughter of a tech mogul is dead in a ritual circle with nineteen other New Yorkers, no one as...
