Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In the Heartland Fairy Tribe the baby fairies are born without wings. They have to earn their wings by learning very important moral principles. Principles that will not only help their wings to grow, but also help them become good, helpful fairies that do their work in The Love Nest Forest every day without moaning. They do their work cheerfully and diligently as this will keep their forest alive and happy. Their King and Queen choose their teachers carefully, as they want each fairy in their tribe to grow big and strong wings. This will help them to do their work and they will also keep them safe too. Buy this first book of Jedu Gets His Wings and let your child learn with him the lesson on OBEDIENCE. They will learn that OBEDIENCE is a principle of great worth as they travel through their life journey. It will keep them safe and they will become a person who can be trusted as well.
