Feline Felons: Caught in the ACT

---

By Debbie Keller

Andrews McMeel Publishing. Hardcover. Condition: New. 64 pages. Dimensions: 6.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. One Adam Twelve, One Adam Twelve: Weve got an APB on a young male, black coat with white highlights, flashing eyes that reflect light at night, and a long, sleek tail. Aliases include Kitty, Kitty, Kitty and Stormy. Armed with sharp claws and should be considered extremely dangerous . . . Officers Reed and Malloy would certainly be interested in some of the sneakiest beasts to ever roam the metropolis, aka the Feline Felons. Bad cats, after all, are the current rage, and this book has the rap sheet on all the unusual suspects. Author Debbie Keller knows a bad kitty when she sees one. Her uncompromisingly funny book pairs candid photos of cats caught in the act with clever descriptions of their crimes. Even the occasional, Is this the face of a cat who would toss a guinea pig out a window protestation crops up, too. This cat patrol blotter of feline crimes includes reports such as: Prowler-A midnight prowler was reported in the vicinity of garbage cans on trash day. Police artists have released this composite silhouette: Suspect is a middle-aged male, brown hair, yellow...
