My Mother listened to the gospel every Sunday morning and every Sunday afternoon. On Sunday afternoon, Mom s radio was tuned to the Barrie radio station. It was the late 1940s. At 3:00 pm, a program was on the air from Edmonton, Alberta. Ernest Manning was the preacher, and the name of the broadcast was Canada s National Back to the Bible Broadcast. After sixty years of having studied this man and following his career, I firmly believe that the man who was elected in seven consecutive elections as Premier of Alberta, and who never faced a close election in his entire political career, a man who still can be heard on repeat broadcasts of Canada s National Bible Broadcast, is one of Canada s greatest people.
