Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 36: April, 1936 While our report deals only with dollars and cents, in our consideration of the financial aspect of our sports program we wandered into many fields of undergraduate life. The finances of our athletics are wrapped up in the bundle of student life. It is one of the most important phases of our educational program and cannot be solved by a mere summary of balancing figures for any one year. While the specific duty of the committee was to conserve as much of our Reserve Funds as possible in connection with our immediate program, we would be remiss if we neglected to record some of our observations and to point your thought in the direction of Brown's program beyond the next twelve months.
