LBLA Digital, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is there ever a right time and place for love? Can one ever tell when or where it will strike? Can the love of a man win over the loathing of his country? Praise for the #1 bestseller CANDLES ON THE SAND: Chicklit Club - This is a wonderful story about finding your true self no matter how much it may hurt. Love on the Bookshelf - Stephens weaves an involved tale with lots of nice, neat ends tied up for the reader. You ll truly fall in love with these characters. A well-told tale full of humour, poignant moments, and real emotion, this book stands out among the women s fiction I ve read lately. Pick up a copy for something heart-warming that s sure to lift your spirits. The Romance Reviewers - CANDLES ON THE SAND is a cheery and delightful romantic read. You never know where or when lightning will strike, but when it happens on a trip back to Kenya to bury your parents you know the timing isn t great. Mel has spent the past 14 years resenting her parents for abandoning her at a boarding school in England while they went back to Kenya, a country she had come to hate, to run an orphanage and school for their charity. A tragic accident forces her to return to Kamuti for her parents funeral, forcing her to face her fear of flying and hatred for the place which has now stolen her parents from her for good. But meeting the people who meant so much to her parents and above all the gorgeous, England-educated Sam was not part of the plan. Finding her mother s diaries reveals...
