FABER FABER, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. An extraordinary achievement. (A. S. Byatt) John Brown s Body, first published in 1969, was A. L. Barker s fourth novel and was shortlisted for the second annual Booker Prize in 1970. Marise Tomelty is the young wife of a travelling salesman, who dislikes sex and is terrified of open spaces. Ralph Shilling, a dealer in pesticides, lives in the flat above the Tomeltys . One day Marise s husband casually mentions that he recognizes Ralph as John Brown: a man acquitted, for lack of evidence, of the gruesome double murder of two sisters. Nevertheless, Marise encourages Ralph s attentions, intoxicated by a heady mix of passion and fear. She is formidable, and from a bare corner of human relations gathers a rich harvest. (Adam Mars-Jones). It would be hard to find anyone who chooses words more exactly or constructs with more precision. (Penelope Fitzgerald).
