Can you lean on it at all? he asked. She placed her weight gently upon the ankle, but a flash of lightning revealed a wince of pain across her face. I must carry you somewhere, said Gardiner. We cannot stay here. The rain is coming on, and perhaps hail with it. We shall be drenched, at least. I think I can walk if you will help, she ventured bravely. Stand here, to the right. Let me rest my arm on your shoulder. He obeyed. Resting her right hand on his left shoulder she limped painfully a short distance through the darkness. The rain began to fall in great scattered drops, then a vicious rent of lightning seemed to shake the whole heavens, and it fell in floods. They had worked their painful way about fifty yards. The road was now running in water, and the slippery mud made walking still more difficult. One little shoe drew off...
