HYTHE A HISTORY (HARDBACK)

The History Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2004. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Hythe is the favourite Kent town for many people. In recent years the world-famous Romney, Hythe and Dymchurch Railway has attracted thousands of visitors, as has the traffic-free High Street, with its fascinating mix of building periods and styles, now a shopper s delight! From the High Street ancient narrow alleys climb the hillside to the majestic parish church of St Leonard. This is the first book to combine an authoritative, readable history of the town with an extensive collection of interesting old photographs, drawn not only from the authors own archives but also those of other respected local historians, most of which...
