West End Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Departing from her mother s Japanese name, One Thousand Cranes, these poems bring a message of trauma and recovery, war and reconciliation, and the passage from personal shame to self-regard. They are historical, political, and personal in the same breath: from the memories of Shigeko Sasamori, Hiroshima survivor, to the author s quieter struggle for dignity and respect in Albuquerque, New Mexico, resurgent city of the Southwest. This beautiful collection of poetry is a powerful work of conscience, a telling of the truest stories ever told about how injustice wounds--and how those who survive can learn the secrets of dreaming the world anew. Mary Oishi has given us the perfect book for this moment in history.--Demetria Marti nez, author of Mother Tongue and Confessions of a Berlitz-Tape Chicana.
