Ballet is more than just a performance dance; it is a classical art of movement and self-expression. With the discipline and rigorous training involved in ballet, most ballet dancers start training at a young age. Even though ballet requires hard work you can help make ballet fun for your child. Ignite your child s passion for ballet dance with this graceful coloring and activity book. Each page captures the endless possibilities of dance through learning and creativity. Although known for its strict and formal techniques it s important to remember dance should be about expressing oneself. Let your child s imagination grow with this exciting book. All of the pages are packed with beautiful illustrations of fantasy and wonder. Ballet is a wonderful art form that is appreciated everywhere in the world regardless of language or culture. Great ballet dancers throughout time know that ballet is a language that is spoken through the heart. Becoming a great dancer starts with having passion. Allow your child to be familiar with freedom of self-expression. Nurture the dancer within your child by giving them the opportunity to discover the world of ballet through their own eyes - starting with this book.
