MICROSOFT DYNAMICS AX 2012 SERVICES

Packt Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 196 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. Effectively use services with Dynamics AX 2012 and create your own services Overview Learn about the Dynamics AX 2012 service architecture. Create your own services using wizards or X code. Consume existing web services and services youve created yourself. In Detail Because an ERP system like Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 plays a central role in an organization, there will always be the need to integrate it with other applications. In many cases, services are the preferred way of doing this, and Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 is now more flexible than ever when it comes to the creation and use of these services. Understanding these services will help you identify where they can be used, and do so effectively. Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 Services is a hands-on guide that provides you with all the knowledge you will need to implement services with Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012. The step-by-step examples will walk you through many of the tasks that you need to perform frequently when creating and using services. Microsoft Dynamics AX 2012 Services provides detailed and practical examples for creating and using services that will make it a resource you will consult many times during your implementations. This book helps you to identify situations where services can be used for your implementations. By providing step-by-step instructions for many of the common tasks, you will gain practical know-how on to get the job done. Easy to follow instructions are provided for all types of services you will encounter. You will learn how to create document services using the AIF Document Service Wizard and how to use X to create custom services. You will also learn how to deploy services and web services and how you can consume them in both...
