There s nothing better than a little love, magic, and death. Revona is known as the Deathbloomer. She is a necromancer with skills that no one has seen before. So, solving crimes and working for the Bureau of the Supernatural is easy. It s also all she s known since she was sixteen. Now, at twenty-three, Revona wants more than dealing with death non-stop. She wants a life. But she didn t bargain for the life belonging to someone else. Something strange is happening and it s scaring her. She is used to order, but the dead guy she just animated has blown everything straight to oblivion. Question: What do you do when you fall in love with a dead man? Answer: Hope like hell the feeling goes away. [Death Undid Me, by J. L. Clayton] - - - Gone but not forgotten. To her great displeasure, Coralie Reed has found new meaning in those words. She definitely hasn t forgotten about Aaron Allen-how could she when he s agitating her as a ghost just as much as when he was alive? He s not really gone at all. And that fact is going to end up causing more than a little trouble. It ll do more than frighten Coralie. It ll do more than frustrate her. It ll do more than put a strain on the connection she has with the new guy she finds in her life. What s a girl gotta do to be able to live in peace? This one is about to find out. [Pretty Guilty, by K. L. Cottrell] - - - Theoretical physicist Dr. Victor Pines has discovered a RIFT between Earth and another...
