The family is the primary influence in an individual s life; one s home life when young has a profound impact on later disposition and behavior. The state of the family, therefore, has far reaching effects for modern culture as a whole. When the family suffers, so do not only the individual members but the culture itself. Thus, strengthening the family is of paramount importance for society as a whole. The Bible provides unique guidance for family matters, by way of pointed instruction and extensive illustration. What is needed in these modern times is a renewed look at the ways in which the family can be strengthened in the context of Biblical understanding. Thumbs Up for the Family provides invaluable instruction on how to enhance family life, along with extensive illustration by way of narrative; all of which is based on a sound scriptural foundation. Author Biography: Author Morris A. Inch has been a teacher and writer for most of his life. He has been on...
