There s Ike, his sister Flora and his boy Abe, (oh, and not forgetting General Lee, the family car named after.you guessed it. The Broussards are simple folk who don t know much about anything, and that includes the war on terror. So, when Abe falls foul of airport security, confusion reigns. For Abe, it s an experience to remember. For airport security, it s one they want to forget. Nice Day at Red Rock is a short story written for people of all ages and is the perfect antidote for anyone in need of cheering up. The silliness of the humor is at the heart of this short story that will put a smile on the faces of all who read it. Good natured humor written in the author s own style of American English, Nice Day at Red Rock is the debut novella of Winston Bradshaw.
