Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Appeal to Facts: In a Letter to the Right Hon. Earl Temple I shall likewise add a Word or two on the Tax that has been laid upon Cyder, and submit the Whole to your Review; which, I know, will be exceedingly cool, and no less candid. Before I enter upon the Subject, give me leave to make one Remark, which I recommend, with some Earnestness, to your Lordship s Attention, and that of my Countrymen. I have lived under several Administrations of Government, and I assure you, that the most effectual, nay the severest, Way of exposing them, was by a fair Relation of what they did: - Facts are with some Difficulty explained away; and this they and their Friends were so sensible of, that, in all their Replies and Rejoinders, they either denied those Facts entirely, or exaggerated or diminished them, as either best suited the Purpose. By this Touch-stone, therefore, the only one that can distinguish Gold from every baser Metal, I intend to try the late Ministry; or rather, as I think all our Friends would wish, the late Minister. This will be doing the Thing with full Effect. And here, my Lord, I cannot help wishing that those two egregious Writers, so well known to the World by their serupulous Adherence to Truth, to Decency, and good Manners, so generally applauded for the Knowledge and Practice of every religious and moral Duty, who have far outgone the Prynns and Lilburns of former Ages; I could have wished that they had taken this better Method. It is true, they have exposed the greatest Names; for they are no Respecters...
