Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In The Rules of the Game Mr. Lambertson gives a book that every leader of boy and girl clubs and organizations will be glad to have. Here are thirty-two story lessons-some Bible stories told with imaginary additions-all true to the times and circumstances. Every story is the kind that will hold the attention of boy or girl, yet it is vitally connected with some moral truth, usually biblical. It will be found a valuable textbook for daily vacation Bible schools. The Teacher s Manual has a chapter for each lesson, rich with suggestions and showing a studious knowledge of the psychology and pedagogy needed for the religious instruction of children. The illustrations in the text are commendably chosen. The chief problem of early education is to help the child to find God everywhere present as the great Father, and to find Jesus as a friend of little children. Miss Baker had this in mind when she planned the forty-four lessons in The Beginner s Book in Religion. She selected them from the child s own experiences in nature, home, neighborhood and kindergarten, and also included some Bible stories. Given a teacher who understands the characteristics and needs of the children in her charge, this book will aid materially in developing the moral and religious attitudes and habits, for the child, says Dr. Coe, has more than a passive capacity for spiritual things. The child at 6 is now ready for the church, school teaching, supplementing that of the public schools. His deeper reasoning powers are not ready yet, but this is the time for most effective habit-forming, not only physical but personal, for the habits...
