Reviews

Certainly, this is the greatest work by any author. It can be written in easy words and phrases rather than confusing. I am just happy to let you know that this is actually the greatest ebook we have studied inside my individual daily life and may be the greatest ebook for at any time.

Excerpt from The Pioneer Pastor: Some Reminiscences of the Life and Labors of the Rev. Geo Buchanan, First Presbyterian Minister of Beckwith, Lanark County, Upper Canada It was decided to ask the Presbytery of Edinburgh to select and send a suitable minister. A call was prepared, signed by nearly all the adults and forwarded in due course. This important document stipulated that the man to be chosen must be of godly carriage and conversation, well qualified to expound the Scriptures, gifted in prayer, skilled in the practice of medicine and able to preach in Gaelic and English. If the petitioners thought their request would be complied with easily, they reckoned without their host. The Presbytery found it very difficult to find a competent minister willing to accept the position. Few of the ministers were physicians and fewer cared to leave flourishing charges for the chance of missionary success in a distant land. Even to ambitious divinity-students the prospect was not particularly alluring. Canada Seemed a long way off. The age of steam and electricity had not been ushered in. Sailing vessels, slow, uncomfortable and unsafe, furnished the sole means. Of traversing the ocean. Popular imagination pictured the regions west of the Atlantic as interminable forests, through which wild beasts and still wilder Indians roamed at will. Central Africa appeared less remote and more inviting than the land beyond the St. Lawrence. So Beckwith's Maccabean cry received no prompt response, weeks and months passing before it could be answered satisfactorily. Eventually the Presbytery urged my father, the Rev. George Buchanan, M. D., then ministering to a church in the Scottish capital, to go to Beckwith. He possessed abundant qualifications for the...
