Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Everystudent, His Encounters in Pursuit of Knowledge: A Modern Morality Play in One Act Everystudent is a modern morality play, depicting trials and temptations of student life through symbolic character representations of various virtues, vices and conditions. If not in style, at least in purpose it is fashioned after the old English morality plays, of which Everyman is the best known example, and Every-woman is the distinguished modern characterization. The dramatic coloring and interest in this play are real and sincere, and it is hoped that the interlude may find acceptance and favor with high schools and colleges. With the suggested music, and the introduction of other pieces if thought desirable, the play-will form an entertainment at once attractive and pleasing. The little work ought, also, to answer the insistent demand for a now form of commencement exercise. The final triumph of Truth and Perseverance over Bluff and Good Times will be found to leave an impress for a more clean and wholesome moral standard of life.
