After finishing his education at Eton and Cambridge, he travelled abroad for some years, principally in Italy, where he seems to have acquired those tastes for which he afterwards became so well known. He returned to England in 1741, and took his seat in parliament, but he had no taste for politics, and six years later he purchased a piece of ground near Twickenham, and made the principal occupation of his life the erection and decoration of his famous mansion-- Strawberry. Hill. The Castle of Otranto appeared in 1764. It was described as a Gothic Story translated by William Marshal Gent, from the original Italian of Onuphrio Muralto,...
