Critical reading: "The Book against God" by James Wood - Reliable or Lies?

By Marylise Thill

GRIN Verlag Feb 2012, 2012. sonst. Bücher. Book Condition: Neu. 210x148x1 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Scholarly Essay from the year 2009 in the subject English - Literature, Works, printed single-sided, grade: 14, University of Louvain, language: English, abstract: The Book Against God is a debut novel written by James Wood, a famous book critic. This book portrays Thomas Bunting's life. This 26-year-old man is married to Jane, a famous pianist. Thomas is supposed to write a Ph.D. in philosophy. However, he started it seven years ago and he still has not finished it. He is in fact a man that is unable to finish something that he has begun. Instead of finishing it, he has started writing another book, The Book Against God (BAG). This is his private project, as he says, in which he copies out opposite religious and anti-religious quotations, and develops arguments of his own about theological and philosophical matters. This quotation shows that he is an atheist and that he wants to write a book about it, which he considers to be his life's work. Thomas has also many other bad habits like lying,...
