Yet, most of us as Christians don t really know our enemy. Satan, is on a mission to destroy God s people and discredit the cause of Christ. But who is he? He is a fallen powerful angel who led a rebellion of a third of the angels of Heaven and now seeks to destroy all that is good and God ordained. Created as one of the highest angelic beings (Ezekiel 28), Satan had more power, intelligence and beauty than anything or anyone in the universe except God. But Satan wasn t satisfied with what he had and his downfall was pride. He wanted to be God. So he fell from Heaven and has been at enmity with God and God s creation ever since. Despite Satan s real presence and existence, many Christians either don t acknowledge that he exists or they give him way too much credit and blame him for everything that goes wrong in their life. The danger as we approach this is to think that everything has to do with Satan and demons or that nothing has to do with Satan and demons. Instead, we need an accurate and balanced perspective of our enemy and a better understanding of his goals and tactics so that we can have victory over the spiritual battle he wages against us. For although God has already won the war when Jesus broke the power of sin and disarmed Satan at the cross, the...
