Sdp Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Every kid knows the famous Green Monster from Boston: the beloved wall over left field at Fenway Park. But what about the other Green Monster-the ugly, green metal Central Artery that carried thousands of commuters over Boston every day? Our hero Tony, and his Nonno, journey through the Rose Kennedy Greenway as Nonno tells his grandson the tale of two Green Monsters. What would happen when the Central Artery came down to make way for a new tunnel? Would all the buildings in Boston collapse? Would rats come out of their hiding places to devour the city? And how would everyone get around during construction? From author and former radio traffic reporter Gina Tempesta comes the tale of a generation that endured the massive Big Dig project and the glorious city that emerged as the result. -For a book to be captivating, it doesn t have to be fiction. It can teach determination and cooperation as well as lessons in civics, social studies and history and peak the imagination of a young reader. Gina Tempesta sent us one such books entitled, -Boston s Other Green Monster: A Story About The Big Dig.- She has been reading the book to school children around her state and they embraced it with curiosity and excitement. We wanted to bring this entertaining book to you, our readers, to share with your kids.- -Gina Tempesta offers an entertaining and insightful tale about life before and after the Big Dig- --Casey Sherman, national bestselling author of The Finest Hours and Boston Strong -Boston s Other Green Monster . belongs on every child s bookshelf, right next to Make Way For Ducklings- --Mauzy Stafford, veteran Boston radio personality...
