INTEGRATING FAITH AND SPECIAL EDUCATION (HARDBACK)

Wipf Stock Publishers, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There is an inherent connection between the Christian faith and special education. For example, both focus on the worth of the individual. Both also focus on fairness and on caring for, or helping, the weak. Similarly, both aim to equip and support others. This book helps the readers perceive this integral relationship that exists between the Christian faith and the special education discipline. This book utilizes the chapters that stem from real life professional experiences and scholarship of the contributors to model and encourage special education practice from a Christian faith angle. It is our view that special education practiced from this faith perspective will transform what is currently accepted as best practice, into a new system of special education experience that is wholesome, biblically-based, and characteristic of Shalom as wholeness (not just peace). Shalom in this sense has strong relevance in both the Christian faith and special education. The first three chapters highlight the connection between special education and Christian theology, and draw attention to the pivotal role worldview plays in being an effective special educator. The bulk of the body of the text looks at different aspects of instructional effectiveness in special education from a Christian faith perspective. Integrating Faith and Special Education provides an opportunity for practitioners to meaningfully engage the intersection of theology, diversity, and implications for effectively meeting the needs of students. A great resource for educators. --Pamela M. Christian, Vice Provost of Inclusion and Cross-Cultural Engagement, Biola University ? This book is essential for the field of special education, especially for teacher practitioners who are engaging in responding to the call to serve children with disabilities. This book is an excellent resource for those who are...
