Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Address of the Friends of the Thomsonian Botanic System of Medicine, to the People of Maryland It is not our province, nor do we feel any inclination, to defend his sceptical opinions; but on the contrary sincerely deprecate their introduction into his New Guide as entirely foreign to the subject of medicine and just as relevant as their introduction by Dr. Williams, is potent as an argument against his system 1 Professor Cooper of South Carolina, is generally acknowledged as the very Prince of Infidels, in this country yet no one has, presumed to urge his heretical opinions of the sacred priesthood and religion, as a conclusive argument, that he is destitute of a knowledge of the sciences, Or is not a profound and learned man It is only reserved for such soulless beings as Dr. W. To travel out of the record; and for lack of legitimate argument, or well-attested facts, to foster prejudices and assail Dr. T. s system with the cry of Infidelity and Blasphemy. Such a course is worthy of demagogues of every school, whether medical or political, and finds no more favor in our estimation, than the introduction of irrelevant matter by the author of a system of medicine we admire and defend and both are welcome to this frank expression of our Opinion. As conclusive evidence that the friends of the Botanic system have nothing to do with the author s opinions upon other subjects, and that they were considered as improperly introduced in his New Guide, it is only necessary to state, that at the first United States Botanic Convention, held at Columbus, Ohio, in a committee was appointed to examine books, papers,...
