To his dismay he finds himself in the world courtroom where he is the epitome of everyone in the world s hate, disgust and envy. Having been found guilty on all charges and on all counts he is convicted and sentenced to serve out a life sentence in one of the worst prisons in the cosmos. Outraged, vengeance would have been a cakewalk compared to how he responds. For, when he is taken into custody something unworldly awakens in him and what happens next is more than anyone could have ever prepared for. Black Man is the prison break story that no human mind could conjure. It s the naming of the true source of the black man s suffering. It s the story of a conscious awakening. It s the story of Divine Providence. It s the narrative of how the Black Man goes from being God to the damned. Black Man is an introspective, thought-provoking science-fiction novel that boldly challenges the black community to deal with some highly controversial issues centered around black culture, relationships, history and their impact on the present day black community. It is about a people with a story so grand that it can barely be conceptualized with the human mind. It is a story of the strength, reverence and willpower of the Black Man.
