

Kingdom Come: A North Country Mystery (Paperback)

By John H Vibber

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. It s 1997 and the end of the world is approaching once again. When a scheme to make a fortune from the millennium is compromised, Nicole Rivard drowns while fishing a New Hampshire pond. Was this an accident or murder to protect a secret? The police say this was a boating mishap. Nicole s brother Pete believes this true until he discovers the duplicity of the printing business where Nicole had worked. The adventure begins when Pete and his girlfriend Lottie Clayton investigate a fishing lure and hook a conspiracy. Readers of Vibber s first book Shadow on Cant-dog Hill will appreciate another exciting mystery entwined with young romance. They will admire beautiful nineteen year old Lottie Clayton who demonstrates the same raw courage and investigative talent as her mother Adele. John Vibber s second mystery Kingdom Come is an invitation to the North Country but it s also a cautionary tale about domestic terrorism.
