

Selected Poems: William Morris (Paperback)

By William Morris

Carcenet Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 1992. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. If a chap can't compose an epic poem while he's weaving tapestry he had better shut up , says William Morris (1834-1896). He was a brilliant designer, a political thinker and one of the most popular poets of his day. While his designs are still prized, his poetry fell for decades into neglect. Crafted and robust, his verse is something to be enjoyed, like other well-made objects. It is at the heart of his creative vision. This selection contains the best of his short poems, ranging from dramatic narratives with medieval settings to romantic lyrics, to Chants for Socialists . His most popular poems, such as The Defence of Guenevere and King Arthur's Tomb , appear here, as do extracts from The Life and Death of Jason and Love is Enough . Extensive selections from poems of the Earthly Paradise time and Poems by the Way are also included.
