SCENT OF THE WOLF (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The Rugen Islands, 1804. From the moment Sophia Miller and her cousin, Karl, arrive at an old European castle to hear their grandfather's Will, Sophia experiences frightening dreams and visions. Plagued by memories of her troubled past and thrust into an unwanted situation in a foreign land, she intends to collect her inheritance and return to London as soon as possible. Her plans change, however, when she and Karl learn they must remain in the castle for a month or the Will is void. Matters are further complicated when another benefactor is named. Peter Krieg--a dark, mysterious stranger--awakens feelings Sophia never imagined or feared. REVIEWS: Tracy has captured the dark, haunting flavor of a spine-chilling Gothic tale in Scent of the Wolf. Her descriptions are visual. You are there, among these fascinating characters on their mysterious journey toward an outcome that is unclear until the very end, as is the way with all memorable works of fiction. There is nothing predictable here. And then, as if that isn't enough, there is a twist ending that will give you gooseflesh. Guaranteed. The characters are real--not just Sophia and Peter, but the secondary characters as well, and they are woven in in such a way as to keep the reader guessing until the final page is turned. Forget all you've learned about werewolves. These are a new breed. They will haunt you long after you close the book and consign it to your shelf until you're ready to take it down and read it again. It's that good. If you want a fast-paced, dark and spooky read by a talent author who is sure to shine through many...
