Brand New Book  Print on Demand .HEREIN are 15 Chinese Wonder Tales from the ancient land that tall ship sailors used to romantically call Old Cathay. And well deserved these romantic allusions were, for ancient Cathay is a magnificent empire divided by the great Yangtze river and covered by a plethora of diverse and ancient cultures. In this volume you will find the tale of THE GREAT BELL - the story of emperor Yung-lo, who in 1368AD, seeking a new challenge summons Kwan-yu, the master forger, to cast a bell that will resonate with the sweetest sound ever heard. Twice he fails to get the metals to blend. His daughter, Ko-ai, learns that only the blood of the purest maiden will blend the metals and sacrifices herself leaving behind only a slipper thus saving her father s reputation and his life. Her sacrifice resulted in the successful casting of Great Bell of Beijing. The bell is still rung to this day and it is said if you listen carefully you can still hear Ko-ai calling for her slipper. You...
